WEDNESDAY, JUNE 11, 1884.

THE CITY.

Hay is worth about $8 a ton. Mrs. E. S. Philly is quite ill. The street employees were paid this morning. Snow fell in several portions of the state last Monday. Martin Ertle, of Huntington, is visiting friends in the city. The Wabash pay car was at Andrews to-day. It is booked here to-morrow. James McMillan was sent to jail this morning for a bad case of drunkenness. The water supply question was warmly discussed on the streets last night and to-day. Irwin Stratton returned from Albion this morning, where he was on legal business. The street commissioner had a large force of men cleaning the Calhoun street pavement this morning. Next Friday afternoon the Concordia college Turnverein will give an exhibition in White's addition. Miss Jennie Kenower arrived in the city this morning from Huntington and is the guest of Mrs. John Lillie. About fifty county superintendents are in attendance at the annual meeting now being held in Indianapolis. Township Trustee Gaffney sent Louisa Swinchart and her daughter to Kendallville to-day. They were penniless. Gustave W. Schmidt and Wm. J. Friday have filed suit against John S. and Elma Beach to set aside conveyance. Miss Annie White, daughter of Capt. James B. White, is home from Cleveland, having graduated from Mrs. Fisher's seminary there. This morning George W. Pixley purchased the first Masonic Temple bond for $500. H. W. Mordhurst got bond No. 2, for a like sum. Mrs. J. W. Phelps died at 2 o'clock yesterday morning at her residence, No. 165 Jackson street. The funeral will be at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Max G. Lade asks permission of the council to put a small powder magazine under the sidewalk in front of his store. It is to simply store powder in overnight. Invitations are out to the marriage of Miss Emma Tibbles to Alfred S. Johnson. The ceremony takes place June 25, at the home of the bride, at 177 Griffith street. Christ Hoffman, the well known Wabash engineer, has been transferred from his local run between Andrews and Fort Wayne to a passenger run from Toledo to Delphos. Henry Frappie, the fellow shot by a Jefferson township constable, was removed to his home at Williamsport, Ohio, to-day. He still suffers terribly from his wounds. Dr. W. T. Ferguson was granted his naturalization papers yesterday. In a few days Dr. Ferguson will leave for Dublin, Ireland, to visit his aged mother, who resides there. Mrs. Julia Rohs who was adjudged insane yesterday, will be taken to the state asylum at Indianapolis. Her husband, Henry Rohs, and her brother, A. Geismar, will accompany her. George Young, a man of dissipated habits, was killed by a Wabash train at Fort last Monday. The supposition is that he was lying on the track sleeping when he was struck. He was fifty years of age and unmarried. Henry Newhaus, the clever wall paper salesman for A. S. Maxwell & Co., of Chicago, is in the city. Mr. Newhaus ranks second this year in the list of salesmen for his house and receives an increase of $1,000 in his salary. Rev. Joel M. Seymour and wife left this afternoon for Alliance, Ohio. The reverend gentleman has long been pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church and was given a handsome purse by his parishioners, who much admired their clergyman. Thursday evening or Friday morning H. K. Gordon will arrive here with the remains of his brother, Thomas, of whose death at Palestine, Texas, THE SENTINEL has made mention. The deceased went to Palestine about a year ago. Notice of the funeral will be given hereafter. An organ recital will be given at Trinity Episcopal church this evening, under the direction of Prof. Leonard Walos. Miss Jennie Kenower, of Huntington, and Mr. W. F. Schulze, of this city, will sing several solos. Mr. Schulze is a member of the Cathedral choir and has a very pleasing tenor voice. Last evening a man named James Harlan, whose home was in New York City, died on a Pittsburg passenger train at Clark's station, death being caused by consumption. The man and his wife were en route from Chicago to their home. The remains were taken from the train at Valparaiso where they will be prepared for burial and then shipped to New York for interment. The deceased was about forty-five years of age.

A side show on Calhoun street catches the unsophisticated. Committees will meet this evening to arrange for a Masonic excursion July 4. The Rose Catholic congregation of Mooresville will give a festival next Tuesday. T. P. Anderson will soon discontinue the sale of pianos and other musical instruments. Last night the council passed an ordinance prohibiting the stretching of barbed wires for fences in the city. William Markle and Charley Vorse, of this city, were registered at the Denison house, Indianapolis, yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harmyer pleasantly entertained quite a party of railroad men and their families last night. The Lovenberg dime show opens at the Academy next Monday for one week. The party comes highly recommended. If the hospital scheme of the Wabash is carried into effect at all, an asylum will be located at Danville and another at Fort Wayne. Dr. J. M. Dinnen has decided that Mary Rice, the unfortunate inmate of Dr. Thayer's hospital, did not die from criminal practice but because of a blood clot in the heart. A movement is on foot to open Harrison street across the Pittsburg and Wabash roads. The railroad companies oppose the opening because it destroys their freight depot switching facilities. The democratic first voters of the Eighth ward have organized an immense club and are building a wig-wag for their meetings. The gallant young democrats give an excursion to Rome City June 21. Hon. James G. Blaine is related to Judge Walpole G. Colerick, Henry Colerick and P. B. Colerick, being their second cousin. When in this city some years ago Mr. Blaine called at the Colerick mansion, on East Berry street. Mary Payton has asked to be separated from William Payton because he treats her cruelly. Caroline Hickman is tired of living with her husband, William Hickman, and wants a legal excuse to fire him. Mr. B. P. Colerick is attorney for both women. In the case of Samuel F. Swayne, administrator of the estate of John Hough, deceased, against Samuel H. Allen and others, Hon. Robert S. Taylor has resigned his trust as trustee of the property described in the pleadings in said case. Another trustee will be appointed. Conductor J. E. Haines, of the Plymouth accommodation, has returned from the east, where he passed a month in travel. Mr. Haines was a delegate to the conductors' national convention, which convened at Philadelphia last month. Later Mr. Haines went to New York and Boston. As soon as the democratic candidate for president is nominated the members of the Jeffersonian club will show the handful of republicans here what a ratification meeting is. The members of the club will defray all expenses and its president, Hon. Montgomery Hamilton, will invite speakers for the occasion. Last night the common council repealed the ordinance making merchants scrape the pavement in front of their business houses, and hereafter the street commissioners' force will perform the work. It will be remembered this ordinance was enforced to assist the city over a financial crisis and its repeal was promised as soon as the city reached a cash basis. M. E. Jessup sailed for London on the Aurania last Saturday. It is stated that Mr. Jessup will confer with General Pavy, who represents Wabash interests in London, about funding the coupons of the Wabash general mortgage bonds for three years, and effecting a general plan of reorganization which will be approved by English holders. It is stated that about $1,700,000 Wabash papers have been turned in, and receiver's certificates demanded for them. There were quite a number of distinguished citizens at the council lobby last night, among them Hon. O. P. Morgan, S. B. Bond, County Commissioner Gloyd, County Commissioner Hartman, Hon. Jesse L. Williams, Hon. Charles McCulloch, J. M. Kane, George D. Craue, Hon. A. P. Edgerton, Fred Beach, Andrew F. Glutting, William Moellering, Judge S. E. Sinclair, County Treasurer Dalman, C. M. Dawson, ex-Councilman John Lillie, jr., and Henry M. Williams. The Indianapolis News says: "Employees on the Wabash on the Indianapolis, Peru and Chicago division, are in a striking attitude over the failure of the pay car to appear, as promised by the Gould officials. April wages are still due, and the belief that is growing that it will be many moons before May and June bills are settled. A strike at the Penn shops will certainly occur if the paymaster does not make his rounds with a 'pocket full of rocks' within a few days. Once inaugurated, a strike would sweep over the entire system, with a rapidity calculated to arouse the officials to some appreciation of the delays and injustices inflicted upon the employees in the payment, or rather non-payment, of wages during the past two years."

ON RECORD. The Masonic Temple Mortgage Filed With the County Recorder--Denomination of the Papers and Other Interesting Points. This morning the last act in the Masonic Temple drama was played. With County Recorder Mommer was filed a mortgage of the property to Judge James Cheney and other bondholders. The mortgage represents 186 bonds, forty-six of which are for $300 each and 140 for $50 each. The paper is filed in favor of Judge James Cheney as trustee, and is to run for twenty years at the rate of 6 per cent interest, payable semi-annually in June and December. The usual provision in case of default of interest payment, etc., is made, and last an insurance of $20,000 is put on the building in favor of the bondholders. This, of course, settles the Masonic Temple which is already up to the fourth story. SUING FOR A ROUBLE. Sarah C. Knott Begins Proceedings to Recover $5,000 From the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for the Death of John C. Knott. This morning, through her attorney Hon. L. M. Ninde, Mrs. Sarah C. Knott filed a suit in the superior court to recover from the Pennsylvania Railroad company $5,000 for the death of John M. Knott. The complaint is quite lengthy and sets forth that on the 20th day of June last year, Mr. Knott was a brakeman on the Pittsburg road, and while coupling cars of the butter and egg train, at Ada, Ohio, he was crushed and mangled so that death resulted instantly. Engineer Griffin, of the train, is charged with carelessness and the deceased is credited with performing his duty rightly. Mrs. Knott brings the suit as administrator and her attorney will push the suit with vigor against the Pennsylvania company which operates the Pittsburg road and is responsible for all suits against it. Judge Joseph Brackenridge and J. R. Cary will represent the railroad company. UNDER THE WAVES. Mysterious Disappearance of Henry Vandoler, a Witness Against Fred Richards, the Alleged Murderer of Amos Backestowe. Adams county is again a blaze of excitement about the sudden and mysterious disappearance of Henry Vandoler, of Monroe township, who is an important witness for the state against Fred Richards, now in jail here charged with the murder of Amos Backestowe, near Berne some time ago. Last Friday about dusk Vandoler went to Bluff creek to fish. He did not return Saturday morning and a search was made for him. Saturday and Sunday the woods were scoured and the creek dragged for miles, but without avail. Charges of foul play were openly made and the evidences of a struggle on the bank of the creek substantiated them. Nothing has been heard of the missing man, but the officers are working up the case and if the murderers are caught they will be lynched. Vandoler was summoned to testify against Richards when his trial occurs here and it is pretty certain that the Richards gang is not in jail yet. OUR GRADUATES. the rules were suspended and the election of school trustee for the next three years was proceeded with. Oliver P. Morgan received the entire seventeen votes without opposition and was declared elected. The proposition to purchase a water right from the feeder canal and St. Joe river for $15,000 was voted down and Councilman Hamilton introduced a resolution offering $15,000 for the fee simple of the canal. The mayor appointed Councilmen Hamilton, Mohr and Lumbard to present the sense of the resolution to the canal owners, and after the transaction of other business the council took a recess until next Tuesday night when the water works question comes up again.
